Top 10 Wedding Honeymoon Ideas

2

Insure It

Before you jet off on your honeymoon, get travel insurance to protect you in an emergency, such as an illness, injury, or family death (travelguard.com or accessamerica.com).

From Modern Bride magazine

Discount Destinations

Let off-season deals guide your honeymoon choice. In fall, save up to 20 percent off Hawaii hotel rooms; in summer, head to the Caribbean or Mexico to save up to 40 percent off accommodations.

4

Stellar Exchange

Make overseas purchases with your credit card. You'll often get the lowest possible exchange rate, and you'll be protected from unauthorized charges. Just make sure your bank won't charge you for spending abroad.

5

Call of the Wild

Get in touch with nature on your honeymoon—whale-watch in Alaska, go on safari in Africa, ride elephants in India, or see kangaroos in Australia.

From Brides magazine

6

Language Lesson

Going abroad for your honeymoon? Get the 12-Language Portable Translator, an electronic handheld that offers help in French, German, Italian, and more (hammacher.com).

7

Honeymoon Fund

Register with Distinctive Honeymoons (distinctivehoneymoons.com) or Honeymoon Wishes (honeymoonwishes.com) for extra money toward your trip of a lifetime.

Shop 'Til You Drop

Leave room in your luggage to bring home purchases. If you're going to a fabulous destination like Paris or Milan, bring an extra bag.

9

Well-Packed

Make a list of each item that you want to bring on your honeymoon, and cross it off as you pack it. That way, you'll be sure to bring all of your essentials.

10

Restful Respite

Don't leave for your honeymoon right away. Wait a day or two after your wedding so that you'll feel refreshed—not exhausted—when you arrive at your destination.
