What is the Big Day Travel?:

The Big Day is an online gift registry that centers on wedding travel but also provides some cool options to register for such as honeymoon airline tickets but also things like staying several nights in a cave, or renting a motor scooter.

"is the most popular honeymoon travel registry in the world. Couples in 126 countries (66% of the world's nations) have used TheBigDay's service. In 2004, TheBigDay was named a Better Business Bureau "Business of the Year" for Innovative Business Practices."

What You Can Register For:

You can register for pretty much anything travel related from x$ worth of air miles, to helicopter rides and restaurant meals, the travel registry seems very experience-based.

What the Big Day Travel Will Do:

From thebigday.com: "No matter what kind of honeymoon experience a couple is looking for, TheBigDay can help. The only limit is the couple's imagination. With gifts purchased through TheBigDay.com honeymoon registry, most couples can easily upgrade their honeymoon experience making it a first-class getaway, with their family and guests buying them honeymoon gifts like sunset cruises and snorkeling."

A Registry Where You Can Donate:

You can include registry items to help other people.

A sample registry cited by thebigday.com included: 24 goats and sheep for needy families in Palestine and Jordan; wedding financing for 20 Palestinian refugees; medical care for at least 20 Iraqi children injured by the war.
